Our Junior Hurling team cursed past Avondale in the replay of the county Junior B Hurling championship Final in Blessington on Saturday evening winning on a score line of Kiltegan 4-13 Avondale 1-11, to lift the Eamon Doyle Cup and to end the year on a high for the club. When Seanie O'Neill scored the first goal after three minutes of play this set down a marker for the rest of the game and all our players responded and put in a huge shift. Two further goals by Seanie followed by great points from Colm O'Connor and Daniel Byrne and five points from frees by our excellent free taker JJ Phelan brought the score at half time to Kiltegan 3-07 Avondale 1-05. Avondale only scoring one point from play. Some team changes to the original team line up before the match paid dividends where Seanie O'Neill and Derek Daly who was on for the injured Ray Kelly who had secured the replay with a last minute point from a free. Daly was a revelation in the full forward line laying off some great passes for some of our scores. Matthew Doyle was a thorn in their side throughout the game. The full back line led by Mattie Doyle and the half back led by Eoin O'Neill kept Avondale forwards to two points from play. While Colm O'Connor and Daniel Byrne and Matthew Jackson contained mid field. Daniel keeping Avondale's star player Niall Heffernan scoreless from play, Niall scored all 1-09 from frees and a penalty for Avondale. From our goalie Fergal Farrell to number fifteen and the subs who were introduced it was a wonderful team performance. Our captain Eoin O'Neill received the Doyle Cup from County Chairman Damien Byrne. Eoin in his speech referred to one of his team mates Mark Pierce although no longer with us his presence was felt on the field and through the year. He also thanked the management and backroom staff and his fellow team mates for their efforts through out the year.

Congratulations and well done to manager Liam Kavanagh, selectors Pat Ivory, Nigel Nolan, Denis Hayes, Eoin O'Neill team secretary Theresa Nolan and kit man Martin Nolan.
Scores: Seanie O'Neill 4-00, JJ Phelan 0-09, Colom O'Connor, Daniel Byrne, Stephen Coogan, and Derek Daly 0-01 each.

 JUNIOR B COUNTY CHAMPIONS 2024

THANK YOU

Congratulations to concerned with winning the Junior B Hurling Championship last weekend. We would very much like to thank all those who went to the trouble of bringing the cup up to our Mark's grave. We very much appreciate the gesture and its great to see that you included Mark in the win and you still regard him as part of the group. It just goes to show that the emblem "Club Beag, Croi Mór" is heart felt and really does mean something to everyone involved.

Thanks to you all from Derek, Daniel, Philip & Leona Pierce.

Sale Of Former Curate's Residence

As people of the parish know, a few years have passed now since there was an active second priest in Rathvilly Kiltegan parish. The result is that the Kiltegan house was left vacant. As the one responsible for the parish property, a course of action regarding the house was needed. Bishop Nulty advised a sale; the diocesan consultors (a committee including the Bishop) thought the correct course of action was to offer the house for sale. Informal conversation with parishioners also agreed. The overheads of the house had to be continually paid by the parish (insurance, heating and security). Work to prepare for the sale has been done (a considerable amount with solicitor, BER assessor, valuers, the Bishop's Office etc). An auctioneer has been appointed, Sherry Fitzgerald McDermott, and the house is currently on the market. I want to thank everyone who has been of help over the past while. I am grateful that the people of the parish understand that arrangements have to be altered to manage the whole parish with a single priest. In this regard, we are similar to other surrounding parishes. The next phase will involve more lay involvement in the pastoral work of each parish. New initiatives and training will be offered by the diocese. Watch for other notices.
Fr John McEvoy.
